

Drought leaves Pedro 'high & dry'

Media Release from: 29 November 2004

The Eaglehawk Recovery & Sales Yard have many unwanted and unusual items left with them for sale.

This week a boat named "Pedro" found its way to the Yard and now sits waiting for its new owner to come and claim it.

Yard Supervisor, Peter Buck, who's nickname happens to be "Pedro", is excited to have Pedro (the boat) come into the yard. Peter said "With a lack of water in the region, Pedro has been left 'high and dry'."

Peter says he expects Pedro's stay at the Yard will be brief, "I know some one is going to come in over the next week and Pedro will be sold.

When something unusual like Pedro arrives, it is a great

Above: Peter [Pedro] Buck (left) and Tony Mullen are pictured with Pedro (the boat).

talking point for visitors to the Yard, but eventually some one will see the value."

"We have a huge range of items, there is something for everyone. The Yard is open seven days a week, it's friendly, it's cheap and very entertaining," he said.