MEDIA RELEASE

TIP OF THE ICEBERG is an art exhibition from and about waste and will be on display this weekend at the Bendigo Town Hall from 10am to 4pm.

Local Artist, Deirdre Outhred said today "Waste and recycling is an issue which affects us all and this exhibition highlights the value of recycling, reuse and sustainability The City of Greater Bendigo share these values and have provided the use of the Town Hall."

Sponsor spokesman, Peter Cox from the Eaglehawk Recycle Shop said "The exhibition will demonstrate the ingenuity of people and how they use what some people see as waste and others as a resource."

"The Eaglehawk Recycle Shop provides many opportunities for people to purchase cheap secondhand materials. Few people have the opportunity to display their work but the artists – Graham Mathews, Deirdre Outhred, Ray Pearce and Julie Millowick will demonstrate over the weekend just how resourceful they are," he said.

"There will also be a photographic exhibition of customers and their purchases," Mr Cox said.

The exhibition, being sponsored by City of Greater Bendigo, Hyde Studios and Eaglehawk Recycle Shop has free entry.
